LGBTQ

Mehefin yw mis codi ymywybyddiaeth LGBTQ ac fel sefydliad, mae Ysgol Uwchradd Bodedern yn gosod cydraddoldeb yn flaenoriaeth. Fel rhan o'r digwyddiad mae nifer o elusennau a mudiadau yn codi ymywybyddiaeth am gefnogaeth a lleoliadau diogel ar-lein i dderbyn gwybodaeth diduedd i addysgu a chefnogi. Ar y blaen, mae'r elusen Stonewall Cymru lle mae nifer o ddigwyddiadau ar-lein. Gelli cael mwy o wybodaeth ar y wefan: <https://www.stonewallcymru.org.uk>

Cadw'n ddiogel ar-lein

Mae HWB (adnodd addysgol Llywodraeth Cymru) yn rhannu nifer o adnoddau defnyddio iawn i gefnogi ac addysgu. Yn ddiweddar, mae sylw wedi bod ar y newyddion am aflonyddu yn erbyn merched mewn sefydliadau addysgol, ac yn arbennig rhannu neu fod o dan bwysau i rannu delweddau noeth. Mae hyn yn bryder a ffocws i'r Gweinidog Addysg newydd Jeremy Miles. Mae'n bwysig nodi na ddylid edrych ar y ddelwedd sydd wedi ei rhannu, gwneud copi ohoni, ei hargraffu, ei rhannu, ei storio na'i harbed – mae hyn yn anghyfreithlon.

LGBTQ

June is LGBTQ awareness month. As an organisation, Ysgol Uwchradd Bodedern places equality for all our pupils as a priority. As part of the month, a number of organisations and charities are raising awareness of safe on-line rooms and events to receive un-biased support and information. One of the fore runners is the charity Stonewall Cymru, where a number of online events are available. More information is available on their website:

Keeping safe on-line

HWB (Welsh Government educational resource) shares a number of useful resources to support and educate. Lately there has been much talk about harassment against girls in educational settings, especially sharing nudes or being under pressure to share nudes. This has become a focus and concern of the new Education Minister Jeremy Miles. It's important not to look at an image if sent, make a copy of it, to print, share, to save or store – this is illegal. For support, contact the school's safeguarding team, social services through Teulu Môn or the online safety department of the Police – CEOP. Contact details below.
